

Jeremiah 2:14

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Is Israel a servant? is he a homeborn slave? why is he spoiled?

Analysis

Rhetorical questions about Israel's status as servant or slave highlight the irony—God freed them from Egypt, yet they became plunder through voluntary apostasy. They enslaved themselves by forsaking divine protection.

Historical Context

This verse from Jeremiah 2 continues God's covenant lawsuit against Judah, delivered during the late 7th century BC as the nation spiraled toward Babylonian exile. The prophetic indictment addresses systematic idolatry, failed political alliances, and spiritual adultery that characterized Judah from Manasseh through Jehoiakim's reigns. Archaeological evidence confirms widespread syncretistic worship practices condemned here.

Study Questions

1. How does this accusation against ancient Israel reveal patterns of spiritual unfaithfulness that might appear in different forms today?

2. What does God's persistent lawsuit demonstrate about His desire for His people's return versus immediate judgment?
