

Jeremiah 2:15

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The young lions roared upon him, and yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burned without inhabitant.

Analysis

Enemy nations depicted as roaring young lions make Israel's land waste and burn cities. This vivid imagery describes Assyria and Babylon's devastating invasions as consequence of covenant unfaithfulness.

Historical Context

This verse from Jeremiah 2 continues God's covenant lawsuit against Judah, delivered during the late 7th century BC as the nation spiraled toward Babylonian exile. The prophetic indictment addresses systematic idolatry, failed political alliances, and spiritual adultery that characterized Judah from Manasseh through Jehoiakim's reigns. Archaeological evidence confirms widespread syncretistic worship practices condemned here.
