

Jeremiah 37:21

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

Analysis

King Zedekiah commits Jeremiah to 'the court of the prison' and orders daily bread while available. Despite his fear of officials (38:5), Zedekiah protects Jeremiah from execution. This ambivalence characterizes Zedekiah - drawn to God's prophet but lacking courage to obey. God providentially preserves His servant even through an irresolute king.

Historical Context

This imprisonment in the court of the prison (a less harsh confinement) lasted until Jerusalem's fall (38:28). God sustained Jeremiah throughout.
