

Jeremiah 39:18

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For I will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee: because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the LORD.

Analysis

The reason for Ebed-melech's deliverance is stated explicitly: 'because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the LORD.' This is the heart of saving faith - trust in God Himself, not in circumstances, nationality, or religious pedigree. His life becomes 'a prey' (spoils of war retained) - he survives amid general destruction. Faith secures what nothing else can.

Historical Context

While Jerusalem was destroyed and most inhabitants killed or exiled, this Ethiopian servant was specifically protected by God's providence.

Study Questions

1. What does it mean to put your trust in the LORD rather than in circumstances?

2. How does God sometimes make your life 'a prey' - preserved from destruction around you?
