

Jeremiah 48:26

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Make ye him drunken: for he magnified himself against the LORD: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.

Analysis

Make Moab 'drunken' for he 'magnified himself against the LORD.' Drunkenness symbolizes confusion, helplessness, and shame. Moab's pride against God brings humiliating judgment. The image of Moab wallowing in vomit emphasizes the degradation of those who exalt themselves against God. Pride always precedes fall (Prov 16:18).

Historical Context

Moab's pride against Judah was ultimately pride against Judah's God. Their mockery of God's people (48:27) brought divine retribution.

Study Questions

1. How does pride against God's people ultimately constitute pride against God?
2. What does the humiliation of proud Moab teach about God's opposition to arrogance?
