

Jeremiah 48:7

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For because thou hast trusted in thy works and in thy treasures, thou shalt also be taken: and Chemosh shall go forth into captivity with his priests and his princes together.

Analysis

Moab's trust in works and treasures led to downfall. The Hebrew 'ma'asim' (works) and 'otzerot' (treasures) represent human achievement and accumulated wealth - the twin pillars of self-reliance. God declares these insufficient - Chemosh (Moab's god) will go into captivity with his people. This echoes biblical warnings against trusting riches (Ps 49:6-7, 1 Tim 6:17) and works-righteousness (Eph 2:8-9).

Historical Context

Moab, descended from Lot (Gen 19:37), had opposed Israel repeatedly. Their pride and self-sufficiency made them prime examples of human arrogance facing divine judgment.

Study Questions

---

1. What 'works and treasures' do you unconsciously trust in for security?

2. How does Moab's downfall warn against self-reliance rather than God-reliance?
