

Jeremiah 7:26

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but hardened their neck: they did worse than their fathers.

Analysis

The response to prophetic ministry: 'Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but hardened their neck: they did worse than their fathers.' The metaphor 'hardened their neck' comes from stubborn oxen refusing the yoke. Not only did they resist God's word, but 'they did worse than their fathers'—each generation descended deeper into rebellion. This demonstrates the progressive nature of generational sin when not addressed. The comparison to previous generations shows that familiarity with truth without obedience leads to greater hardness. Reformed theology sees here the principle that resisted light increases darkness.

Historical Context

Each successive generation in Israel's history tended toward greater apostasy, from the judges period through the monarchy to the exile. Resisted grace hardens hearts further.

Study Questions

1. How does resistance to God's word progressively harden the heart?
2. What is the responsibility of one generation to prevent the next from descending further into rebellion?
3. How do we avoid the pattern of doing 'worse than our fathers' spiritually?
