

Job 15:34

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For the congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, and fire shall consume the tabernacles of bribery.

Analysis

The wicked's hope perishes: 'Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be a spider's web.' The spider's web imagery is brilliant—it appears substantial but can't bear weight. The wicked's confidence seems secure but proves fragile when tested. This truth about false securities becomes cruel accusation when wrongly applied to Job, whose trust remains in God despite everything. His trust isn't a spider's web—it endures the ultimate test.

Historical Context

Spider webs were proverbial for fragility in ancient wisdom (Isaiah 59:5-6). Ancient Israelites observed spiders creating elaborate structures that couldn't support substantial weight—perfect metaphor for false securities.
