

Job 26:13

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

By his spirit he hath garnished the heavens; his hand hath formed the crooked serpent.

Analysis

Job praises God's creative power: 'By his spirit he hath garnished the heavens; his hand hath formed the crooked serpent.' This acknowledges divine sovereignty over chaos (the serpent/Leviathan). Even while questioning God's providence, Job affirms His cosmic authority.

Historical Context

Ancient Near Eastern mythology featured chaos monsters (Leviathan, Rahab) that deities fought to establish order. Job affirms God's absolute mastery over such forces.
