

Job 33:14

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For God speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not.

Analysis

Elihu claims: 'For God speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not.' This introduces Elihu's theme - God communicates through various means (dreams, suffering) even when humans fail to recognize it. The speech contains truth but misapplies it to Job.

Historical Context

Ancient Near Eastern cultures valued dreams as divine communication. Elihu's observation that God speaks multiple ways reflects this broader understanding.
