

Job 35:12

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

There they cry, but none giveth answer, because of the pride of evil men.

Analysis

There they cry, but none giveth answer (שָׁם יִצְעָקוּ וְלֹא יַעֲנֶה, sham yitz'aqu velo ya'aneh)—The verb tsa'aq (צָעַק, "to cry out") indicates distress calls. The negative lo ya'aneh ("none answers") reflects divine silence. The phrase because of the pride of evil men (מִפְּנֵי גֵאוֹן רָעִים, mippene ge'on ra'im) gives the reason: ga'on (גֵּאוֹן, pride, arrogance) prevents God from answering. Elihu argues the wicked's prayers go unanswered due to pride, not divine indifference. This echoes Proverbs 28:9: "He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination."

Unanswered prayer is theology's pastoral crisis. Elihu attributes it to pride. Yet Scripture reveals multiple reasons: hidden sin (Psalm 66:18), wrong motives (James 4:3), unforgiving spirit (Mark 11:25), or divine timing (Habakkuk 2:3). Sometimes God's silence is test, not rejection (Psalm 22:1-2). The gospel transforms prayer: Christ's intercession ensures access (Hebrews 4:16, 7:25). We pray not in our merit but in His name (John 14:13-14). Even when answers delay, we're assured of God's listening ear (1 Peter 3:12).

Historical Context

Ancient Near Eastern religions featured capricious deities requiring appeasement. Israelite faith distinguished Yahweh as hearing righteous prayers (Psalm 34:15, 145:18-19) but resisting the proud (Proverbs 3:34, James 4:6). Temple liturgy emphasized proper approach to God. Prophets condemned external religiosity without heart change (Isaiah 1:15, 58:3-9). Elihu's theology aligns with prophetic tradition: God requires humble, righteous prayer, not mere ritualistic crying out.
