

Job 37:5

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

God thundereth marvellously with his voice; great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.

Analysis

Elihu marvels: 'God thundereth marvellously with his voice; great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.' This acknowledgment of divine incomprehensibility prepares for God's speeches. Elihu correctly identifies mystery in God's ways.

Historical Context

Ancient Near Eastern weather phenomena (thunder, storms) were attributed to divine action. Elihu uses natural revelation to teach about God's incomprehensible greatness.
