

Job 38:3

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Gird up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and answer thou me.

Analysis

God commands: 'Gird up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and answer thou me.' This summons Job to stand before divine interrogation. God doesn't answer Job's questions but poses counter-questions, shifting from human complaint to divine examination.

Historical Context

Ancient Near Eastern legal proceedings featured direct examination. God reverses roles - Job wanted to question God, now God questions Job.
