

Job 38:41

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Who provideth for the raven his food? when his young ones cry unto God, they wander for lack of meat.

Analysis

God asks: 'Who provideth for the raven his food? when his young ones cry unto God, they wander for lack of meat.' This reveals divine care for ravens - birds considered unclean and insignificant. If God feeds ravens, how much more does He care for Job?

Historical Context

Ancient Near Eastern cultures viewed ravens as scavengers, not worthy of care. Jesus later uses similar logic (Matthew 6:26) - God's care extends to least creatures.
