

Job 42:9

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted Job.

Analysis

"So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them." Job's friends obey God's instruction to bring sacrifices and have Job pray for them. Their compliance demonstrates appropriate response to divine rebuke. Though they spoke wrongly about God (v.7), they accept correction and God's prescribed remedy. This teaches that even serious theological error can be forgiven when we humbly accept correction and follow God's prescribed path to reconciliation.

Historical Context

Sacrificial systems throughout ancient Near East sought divine favor and forgiveness. God's acceptance of sacrifice through Job's mediation established Job's vindication while providing path for friends' restoration. This demonstrated that God desires reconciliation, providing means for forgiveness even after serious error.
