

Joel 2:11

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and who can abide it?

Analysis

"And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and who can abide it?" This verse presents God as commanding general leading His army. The Hebrew chayil (army/host) can describe military forces or angelic beings. Here, both may apply—God commands locust swarms like military forces and ultimately commands angelic armies at final judgment. The phrase "he is strong that executeth his word" teaches that God's word doesn't return void but accomplishes His purpose (Isaiah 55:11). The rhetorical question "who can abide it?" expects answer: no one—apart from divine mercy. Malachi 3:2 asks identically about Messiah's coming. The answer: only those refined and purified can stand. Christ's first coming brought grace; His second brings judgment and vindication.

Historical Context

Ancient Near Eastern warfare involved commanders leading armies into battle. Applying this imagery to God communicates His active involvement in judgment—He's not detached observer but engaged warrior. The concept of divine warrior appears throughout Scripture (Exodus 15:3, Psalm 24:8, Isaiah 42:13, Revelation 19:11-16). Jesus fulfills this as conquering King returning to defeat enemies and establish His kingdom.

Study Questions

1. How does imaging God as warrior challenge contemporary emphasis on divine love while ignoring holiness?
2. Who can stand before the Lord on judgment day, and what does it mean to be purified beforehand?
