

John 1:21

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No.

Analysis

The interrogators probe whether John fulfills prophecies of Elijah's return (Malachi 4:5) or 'the prophet' like Moses (Deuteronomy 18:15). John's denials show that while he came in Elijah's spirit (Luke 1:17), he is not literally Elijah reincarnated. This reflects Reformed hermeneutics: prophecy finds its ultimate fulfillment in Christ, not in preliminary figures.

Historical Context

Jewish messianic expectations included multiple figures: the Messiah, Elijah redivivus, and the prophet like Moses. This questioning reveals the complex eschatological landscape of Second Temple Judaism.

1. How do we distinguish between partial fulfillments and ultimate fulfillments of biblical prophecy?

2. What does this teach about the humility required when people assign us undeserved titles or roles?
