

John 1:28

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

Analysis

The geographical note 'Bethabara beyond Jordan' (some manuscripts read 'Bethany') situates John's ministry in the wilderness, fulfilling Isaiah 40:3. This location outside Judea's religious establishment symbolizes the radical nature of his message. God often works at the margins, calling His people away from human institutions to encounter Him directly.

Historical Context

Bethabara (meaning 'house of the ford') was likely on the eastern side of the Jordan River in Perea. John's choice of this location may echo Joshua's crossing and Elijah's ministry, connecting his work to Israel's redemptive history.

Study Questions

1. Why does God often initiate spiritual renewal outside established religious centers?
2. How does geography sometimes reflect theological and spiritual realities in Scripture?
