

John 1:43

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

Analysis

Jesus deliberately goes to Galilee and 'findeth Philip.' The verb 'heuriskei' (finds) indicates intentional seeking—Jesus chose Philip, not vice versa. The sovereign initiative in calling disciples echoes Jesus' later words: 'Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you' (John 15:16). Philip is from Bethsaida, the same town as Andrew and Peter, suggesting networks of relationship that Christ uses for kingdom building.

Historical Context

Bethsaida, a fishing village on the Sea of Galilee's northern shore, produced three disciples. Jesus' 'Follow me' issued the same call He would give throughout His ministry. Philip's immediate obedience demonstrates the effective power of Christ's call—those truly called respond. Church tradition holds Philip later ministered in Asia Minor and was martyred.

Study Questions

1. How does Christ's initiative in finding Philip challenge views of salvation as purely human decision?
2. What relationships and networks might God use to expand His kingdom through you?
