

John 10:1

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

Analysis

Jesus begins His Good Shepherd discourse by contrasting true and false shepherds. The true shepherd enters by the door; thieves and robbers climb in elsewhere. This establishes authority's source - legitimate shepherds are recognized and authorized, while false teachers use deception to access sheep. Reformed emphasis on proper ordination and calling finds support here.

Historical Context

Ancient sheepfolds had one guarded entrance. Shepherds entered openly through the door while thieves climbed walls secretly. The imagery was familiar to Jesus' agricultural audience.
