

John 10:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

Analysis

The one who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. Legitimate authority isn't seized but received through proper means. This verse emphasizes ordained ministry - those called, equipped, and authorized by God to shepherd His flock. The Reformed tradition values orderly calling to ministry over self-appointed religious leadership.

Historical Context

Shepherding was considered lowly work in first-century culture, yet Jesus uses it to describe spiritual leadership. This contrasts with the Pharisees' prideful religious authority that exploited rather than served.
