

John 10:3

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

Analysis

The shepherd is known to the porter (doorkeeper) and calls his sheep by name - they recognize his voice and follow him. This beautiful picture shows intimate relationship between Christ and believers. We're not nameless masses but individually known and called. The sheep's ability to recognize the Shepherd's voice demonstrates spiritual discernment given to true believers.

Historical Context

Palestinian shepherds often combined flocks overnight for protection, but each shepherd could call out his own sheep in the morning by name, and they would follow his distinctive voice.
