

John 10:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

Analysis

---

John notes the audience didn't understand Jesus' parable. Spiritual truth requires spiritual capacity to comprehend. The religious leaders heard the words but missed the meaning, illustrating that natural man cannot receive spiritual things (1 Cor 2:14). Understanding requires the Spirit's illumination, not merely human intelligence.

Historical Context

Jesus often spoke in parables that revealed truth to true disciples while concealing it from hardened hearts. This fulfilled Isaiah's prophecy that they would hear but not understand (Isa 6:9).

Study Questions

---

1. What causes some to hear Jesus' words yet miss their meaning?
2. How does the Spirit illuminate Scripture's meaning for you?
3. When have you moved from confusion to understanding about spiritual truth?
