

John 10:8

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

Analysis

Jesus identifies false shepherds as thieves and robbers who came before Him. These include false messiahs, corrupt religious leaders, and anyone claiming to offer salvation apart from Christ. True sheep didn't follow them, demonstrating that God's elect ultimately recognize and reject false shepherds who don't enter through the proper door.

Historical Context

First-century Israel had seen numerous false messiahs and corrupt religious authorities who exploited people for personal gain. Jesus distinguishes Himself from these false shepherds.
