

John 12:35

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

Analysis

Jesus responds with urgency: 'Yet a little while is the light with you.' He identifies Himself as the light and warns of limited opportunity. The exhortation 'walk while ye have the light' calls for immediate response. Darkness represents judgment and spiritual blindness for those rejecting the light. Walking in darkness results in not knowing one's destination—spiritual lostness. This urgent appeal demonstrates grace's limited duration. Opportunity doesn't last forever. The warning anticipates Israel's hardening (v. 37-40) and foreshadows the destruction awaiting Jerusalem.

Historical Context

Jesus' ministry among Israel was brief, ending with His death. Within a generation, Jerusalem's destruction (AD 70) brought divine judgment on the nation. The urgency proved prophetic.
