

John 18:28

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.

Analysis

Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment (εἰς τὸ πραιτώριον, eis to praitōrion, 'the praetorium')—Pilate's official residence, likely Herod's palace on Jerusalem's western hill. And it was early (πρωί, prōi, 'early morning')—after a sleepless night of mock trials.

They themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled (ἵνα μὴ μιανθῶσιν, hina mē mianthōsin)—Entering a Gentile residence would cause ceremonial uncleanness, preventing Passover participation. John's irony is devastating: they strain at ritual purity while engineering history's greatest injustice. But that they might eat the passover—they plot to kill the Passover Lamb while obsessing over ceremonial qualification to eat the shadow.

Historical Context

Jewish tradition taught that Gentile homes were unclean due to potential presence of dead bodies or idolatry. This required Pilate to conduct proceedings outdoors, creating the public spectacle John describes. The chronological note confirms Jesus died as Passover lambs were slaughtered (19:14), fulfilling 1 Corinthians 5:7 —'Christ our passover is sacrificed for us.'

Study Questions

1. How does the religious leaders' concern for ceremonial purity while murdering the Son of God expose the danger of externalized religion?
2. What modern equivalents exist to straining gnats while swallowing camels (Matthew 23:24)—maintaining religious appearance while violating God's heart?
3. How does their desire to 'eat the passover' while killing the true Passover Lamb illustrate humanity's capacity for self-deception?
