

John 18:37

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

Analysis

Christ affirms His kingship while defining its purpose: 'to this end was I born...that I should bear witness unto the truth.' His kingdom is built on truth, not power. 'Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice' divides humanity into two groups: truth-lovers who recognize Christ's voice, and truth-rejecters who don't. This explains why some believe and others don't—it's a matter of spiritual orientation toward truth.

Historical Context

Pilate's cynical response (v. 38), 'What is truth?', reflects Roman pragmatism that valued power over principle. Greek philosophy debated truth's nature; Christ claims to embody it (14:6). This confrontation shows the gospel dividing people.
