

John 2:12

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

Analysis

After the wedding, Jesus goes to Capernaum with His mother, brothers, and disciples. This brief note shows Jesus' humanity—He had family relationships and followed normal travel patterns. Capernaum becomes His ministry base in Galilee. The mention of brothers who would later disbelieve (John 7:5) reminds us that even Christ's immediate family initially struggled with His identity. Family connection doesn't guarantee spiritual understanding.

Historical Context

Capernaum, on Galilee's northwestern shore, was a fishing town and trade center. Peter's house there became Jesus' base (Mark 2:1). The town would later be condemned for its unbelief despite witnessing many miracles (Matthew 11:23).
