

John 2:18

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

Analysis

The Jews demand a sign authenticating Jesus' authority: 'What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?' They acknowledge His bold action requires authorization—who gave Him right to disrupt temple commerce? Their demand for signs reflects both legitimate concern and deeper unbelief. Jesus doesn't need external authentication; His actions themselves carry prophetic authority.

Historical Context

The temple was under the Sadducean high priests' control. Jesus' actions challenged their authority and income. Demanding signs was common (1 Corinthians 1:22)—Jews sought validating miracles. Jesus would provide the ultimate sign—His resurrection—but not on their terms or timeline.
