

John 3:18

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

Analysis

A stark division emerges: 'He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.' Present tense 'is not condemned' and 'is condemned' show judgment as present reality, not merely future event. Unbelief is the condemning sin—not because other sins don't matter, but because unbelief rejects the only remedy for all sins. Humanity enters the world 'condemned already'; faith in Christ is the only escape.

Historical Context

This verse clarifies the judgment theme. All humanity stands condemned under sin (Romans 3:23, 5:12). Faith in Christ delivers from this condemnation (Romans 8:1). Rejection of Christ confirms and seals condemnation. The 'only begotten Son' emphasizes Christ's uniqueness—there is no alternative savior.

Study Questions

1. How is condemnation a present state rather than merely a future event?
2. Why is unbelief the ultimate condemning sin?
