

John 3:33

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

He that hath received his testimony hath set to his seal that God is true.

Analysis

'He that hath received his testimony hath set to his seal that God is true.' Those who do receive Christ's testimony thereby confirm God's truthfulness. Receiving Christ is a double affirmation—of Christ's identity and God's faithfulness in sending Him. The 'seal' imagery suggests authentication, commitment, and ownership. To believe Christ is to seal one's conviction that God keeps His promises.

Historical Context

Sealing documents was common authentication. By receiving Christ, believers 'sign off' on God's integrity. This connects to covenant faithfulness—God promised a Messiah, and receiving Jesus acknowledges fulfillment. Rejection implies God is false; reception declares Him true.
