

John 4:19

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet.

Analysis

The woman's recognition 'Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet' shows spiritual awakening—she moves from seeing Jesus as a Jewish man (v. 9) to recognizing Him as God's spokesperson. This progression illustrates how the Spirit uses conviction of sin to open eyes to Christ's identity.

Historical Context

Prophets were understood as those with divine insight into hidden things. The Samaritans, who accepted only the Pentateuch, still expected prophets and the Prophet like Moses (Deuteronomy 18:15-18).
