

John 4:23

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

Analysis

Jesus declares 'the hour cometh, and now is' when true worship occurs 'in spirit and in truth', transcending location (Jerusalem vs. Gerizim). 'In spirit' means from the heart, enabled by the Holy Spirit, not mere external ritual. 'In truth' requires accordance with God's revelation, especially Christ who is Truth personified (14:6). This prophecy anticipates Pentecost when worship would no longer be geographically centered but Spirit-empowered worldwide. The 'now is' shows the age of spiritual worship began with Christ's coming.

Historical Context

The Samaritan woman raised the worship-location debate (v. 20)—Jews worshiped in Jerusalem, Samaritans on Mount Gerizim. Jesus transcends this argument: New Covenant worship isn't about place but person (Christ) and power (Spirit). Within 40 years, Rome would destroy both temples, vindicating Jesus' words.

Study Questions

1. How does your worship reflect 'spirit and truth' rather than mere religious routine?
2. What does it mean practically to worship 'in the Spirit' during corporate and private worship?
