

John 4:28

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men,

Analysis

The woman's abandonment of her water pot symbolizes leaving behind earthly concerns for spiritual treasure. Her immediate turn to evangelism ('and went her way into the city') demonstrates genuine conversion—those who have encountered Christ cannot help but share the news. The most unlikely converts often become the most zealous witnesses.

Historical Context

Leaving the water pot shows her intent to return, but more significantly her priorities have shifted. The pot represents her old life and concerns, now secondary to proclaiming Christ.

Study Questions

1. What 'water pots' (earthly concerns or pursuits) do we need to leave behind to fully embrace Christ?
2. How does genuine encounter with Christ naturally produce witness to others?
