

John 4:34

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

Analysis

Jesus explains that His 'meat' is doing the Father's will and finishing His work. This declaration reveals Christ's singular devotion to redemptive mission. The Reformed emphasis on God's sovereignty in salvation connects to Christ's complete submission to the Father's plan. His food is accomplishing our redemption.

Historical Context

This statement anticipates Jesus' climactic 'It is finished' on the cross (John 19:30). His entire ministry, from incarnation to ascension, consisted of perfect obedience to the Father's redemptive purposes.

Study Questions

1. How does viewing obedience to God as nourishment transform our perspective on doing His will?

2. What does Christ's focus on 'finishing' God's work teach about perseverance in our callings?
