

John 4:36

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

Analysis

Jesus promises that the reaper 'receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal' so that sower and reaper may rejoice together. This depicts cooperative ministry across time—some plant, some water, some harvest, but all share the joy. The fruit is eternal life for believers, glory to God, and joy to workers.

Historical Context

In ancient agriculture, sowers and reapers were often different people working at different seasons. Jesus applies this to spiritual ministry where John the Baptist sowed, Jesus and disciples reap, yet all will celebrate together.
