

John 4:51

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

Analysis

The servants' announcement 'Thy son liveth' confirms Jesus' word precisely. Their coming to meet him shows the household's concern and joy. This confirmation, while not necessary for faith, strengthens it—God often graciously provides evidence after we trust His promises. The servants' report will establish the exact moment of healing.

Historical Context

The servants' journey from Capernaum indicates the significance they placed on sharing good news immediately. Their meeting the nobleman before his return home suggests they left Capernaum quickly after the healing.

Study Questions

---

1. How does God sometimes confirm our faith after we've already trusted His word?

2. What role does the testimony of others play in strengthening our confidence in Christ's work?
