

John 5:28

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

Analysis

'Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice.' Jesus anticipates amazement and counsels against premature astonishment—greater things are coming. Physical resurrection will occur: 'all that are in the graves shall hear his voice.' This is universal—every human who has died will be raised by Christ's voice. The same voice that spoke creation speaks resurrection.

Historical Context

Physical resurrection was debated in first-century Judaism—Pharisees affirmed it; Sadducees denied it. Jesus clearly affirms it. The universality ('all that are in the graves') includes believers and unbelievers, with different outcomes (verse 29). This confirms the literal, bodily nature of resurrection.
