

John 5:34

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

Analysis

Jesus clarifies His purpose in citing John's testimony: 'that ye might be saved.' He doesn't need human witness for His own validation but offers it for their benefit. This reveals Christ's gracious condescension—He provides multiple witnesses suited to human understanding to enable salvation. God's self-revelation aims at redemption, not mere vindication.

Historical Context

Jesus' statement reveals His redemptive heart even toward opponents. He multiplies witnesses not to win arguments but to win souls, showing patience with unbelief and provision of abundant evidence.
