

John 6:10

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

Analysis

'And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.' Jesus takes charge, organizing the crowd. Sitting down indicates expectation—they're preparing to receive. The detail 'much grass' places this in spring (Passover time) and confirms John's eyewitness memory. Five thousand men, plus women and children, could mean 15,000-20,000 total. The scale emphasizes the miracle's magnitude.

Historical Context

The Greek word for 'men' (aner) specifically means adult males. Counting only men follows ancient census practice. The organization into groups (Mark 6:40 specifies fifties and hundreds) facilitated orderly distribution. Jesus' methodical approach shows that miracles don't exclude organization.

Study Questions

---

1. Why does Jesus organize the crowd before performing the miracle?
2. What does the specific detail about 'much grass' suggest about John's account?
