

John 6:14

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world.

Analysis

'Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world.' The crowd recognizes Jesus as 'the prophet'—referencing Deuteronomy 18:15's prediction of a prophet like Moses. Moses gave manna; Jesus gives bread. The connection is accurate but incomplete—He's not merely a prophet but the Son of God. Partial recognition can prevent full faith.

Historical Context

Jewish expectation of 'the prophet' was connected to but distinct from Messianic hope. Some expected the prophet would prepare for Messiah; others identified them. The crowd's identification is correct as far as it goes but stops short of recognizing Jesus' full identity.
