

John 6:16

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea,

Analysis

The disciples' evening descent to the sea sets up Jesus' walking on water miracle. The temporal marker 'when even was now come' indicates the day's end and gathering darkness, creating the setting for divine revelation in the midst of fear. God often reveals Himself powerfully when circumstances are darkest.

Historical Context

Evening on the Sea of Galilee often brought sudden, violent storms due to cool air descending from surrounding mountains. The disciples' decision to cross the sea despite approaching darkness suggests either confidence or urgency.
