

John 6:30

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

They said therefore unto him, What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

Analysis

The demand 'What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee?' is remarkable given yesterday's feeding of 5,000. Their question reveals that miracles alone don't produce lasting faith—they want new signs to maintain belief. This illustrates that sign-dependent faith is weak and temporary. True faith rests on Christ's person, not constant miraculous validation.

Historical Context

Their question 'what dost thou work?' echoes their ancestors' testing of God in the wilderness (Psalm 78:18-20). Despite witnessing the feeding miracle, they demand additional proof, showing the hardness of unbelief.

Study Questions

1. Why doesn't miraculous proof produce lasting faith?
2. How do we sometimes demand constant new evidences rather than resting in Christ's already-demonstrated sufficiency?
