

John 6:69

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

Analysis

'And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.' Peter's confession parallels his later declaration at Caesarea Philippi (Matthew 16:16). 'Believe and are sure' (perfect tenses) indicate settled conviction. 'The Christ' identifies Jesus as Messiah; 'Son of the living God' asserts His unique divine relationship. This confession grounds their staying when others leave.

Historical Context

This confession reflects the Twelve's settled faith despite confused understanding. They may not grasp all Jesus says but they know who He is. Identity grounds relationship even when teaching remains mysterious. The 'living God' distinguishes the true God from dead idols.
