

John 7:38

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

Analysis

Christ quotes Scripture (likely Isaiah 58:11 or Proverbs 18:4), though no exact OT match exists, suggesting a general theme rather than specific text. 'Believeth on me' makes Christ the object of faith, a claim to deity. 'Rivers of living water' (plural, abundant) contrasts with the woman at the well's request (4:15). The believer becomes a source, not just recipient—Christ's life flows through us to bless others.

Historical Context

John 7:39 explains this refers to the Spirit not yet given because Jesus wasn't yet glorified. The connection between believing, drinking, and overflowing illustrates salvation's progression: receive, be filled, overflow to others.
