

John 7:52

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee?
Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

Analysis

They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet. The Pharisees respond with ridicule. Questioning whether Nicodemus is Galilean is insulting—Galileans were viewed as backward. The command 'search and look' dismisses his argument. Their claim 'out of Galilee ariseth no prophet' is false—Jonah was from Gath-hepher in Galilee (2 Kings 14:25), and likely others. Their dogmatic assertion shows how prejudice trumps evidence. They refuse investigation, preferring comfortable assumptions.

Historical Context

The Pharisees' claim about no Galilean prophets shows either ignorance or willful blindness. Regional prejudice against Galilee was strong among Jerusalem elites. Yet God repeatedly chose unlikely people and places—David from Bethlehem, Elijah from Tishbe, Amos from Tekoa. First-century Judean contempt for Galileans parallels class/regional prejudices throughout history. The gospel challenges all such biases, showing God's grace transcends human categories.
