

John 8:17

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

Analysis

Jesus cites the law the Pharisees claim to uphold: two witnesses establish truth. By Jewish legal standards they profess, His testimony should be accepted. This shows Christ doesn't oppose the law but fulfills it perfectly, meeting even its judicial requirements while transcending them.

Historical Context

Referring to 'your law' emphasizes the Pharisees' claim to be law's keepers and interpreters. Jesus demonstrates He knows Torah better than they do and meets its standards perfectly.

Study Questions

1. How does Jesus fulfill the law rather than abolishing it?
2. What does it mean that Christ meets every righteous requirement?
3. How can you rightly use Scripture rather than weaponizing it?
