

John 8:18

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

I am one that bear witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

Analysis

Jesus identifies His two witnesses: Himself and the Father who sent Him. This astounding claim asserts both His deity (His testimony counts) and the Father's testimony to Him. The Father's witness includes the voice at Jesus' baptism, the signs Jesus performs, and the Scripture's testimony. Reformed theology emphasizes Scripture as the Father's testimony to the Son.

Historical Context

The Father's witness to Jesus included the voice from heaven at His baptism (John 1:32-34) and transfiguration (Matt 17:5), the Spirit's anointing, and fulfilled prophecy.
