

John 8:25

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

Analysis

---

When asked 'Who art thou?', Jesus responds that He is exactly who He's been claiming 'from the beginning.' His identity hasn't changed or evolved - He's consistently revealed Himself as the divine Son. This emphasizes the consistency of Christ's self-revelation and His disciples' responsibility to believe what He's plainly said.

Historical Context

Jesus' response can be translated various ways, but the sense is that His identity has been clear from the start of His ministry - they're without excuse for continuing to question who He is.

Study Questions

1. How clearly has Jesus revealed His identity?
2. What prevents people from accepting Christ's plain claims about Himself?
3. How can you help others see who Jesus truly is?
