

John 8:3

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,

Analysis

---

The scribes and Pharisees bring a woman caught in adultery, setting a trap for Jesus. Their action reveals hardened hearts more concerned with catching Jesus in error than with justice or the woman's soul. This illustrates how religion without grace becomes cruel, using people as pawns in theological disputes.

Historical Context

According to Levitical law (Lev 20:10), both adulterers were to be executed, yet only the woman was brought. This selective enforcement suggests the whole scene was contrived to trap Jesus.
